THE RICHMOND CALAMITY.

We copy from the Richmond Dispatch the following account of the calamity which occurred there on Wednesday, by the falling in of the floor of the old Senate chamber of the Capitol, used for the holding the Supreme Court of Appeals.

Fifty six persons were killed outright and a large number of others badly wounded. A caucus of the Conservative members of the Legislature had just adjourned, and the hour for the meeting of Delegates had nearly arrived, so that, had the catastrophe occurred a few minutes earlier or later, the mortality would had been greater, on account of the greater number that would have been beneath the falling mass.

We give all the particulars received, to the exclusion of other matter to-day.

Sad—sad, indeed—is the duty of the chronicler of the sad events and terrible scenes in our State capitol on yesterday. Unprecedented in their awful results, heart rending in their every aspect, and bringing mourning to our entire city, we almost halt in palsied horror in the undertaking of their narration. To describe it would be beyond the power of man, and with those who witnessed it its recollection will remain indellibly vivid as long as life shall last. In sending to a spirit-grieved people our account of this dreadful calamity we are well aware of our inability to give them more than a narrative of the facts and casualties. The attendant scenes may be imagined but cannot be described. We give below, as best we could obtain them, a summary of the dreadful events:

THE CATASTROPHE.

The room of the Court of Appeals was the scene of the horrible occurrence, and its many historic associations and reminiscences have culminated in an affair which beggars description, and which will be remembered as long as Richmond is a city. As is well known, the Mayoralty contro versy was about to be decided, and an immense concourse of anxious spectators and listeners had gathered to ascertain the result. Members of the Legislature, visitors to the city from all parts of our country, members of the bar, representatives of both police forces of the city, members of the press, and representatives of all classes and conditions of life, were assembled.

The bells had just tolled the hour of 11, and death like silence reigned as Mr. Starke, the clerk, entered and placed his books on the table. Judge Joynes was in his seat. Mr. Starke, leaning over the railing, was talking with him, while the rest of the Judges were in the conference room not quite prepared to enter on their day's duty. The counsel for Major Ellyson, Messrs. Neeson and Meredith, had taken their seats, and were ready to proceed to business. Ex Governor Wells and L. H. Chandler, Esq., were also in their places; and the reporters of the Enquirer, Dispatch, Whig, and State Journal, were at the desks set apart for their use and accommodation. The moments were spent in pleasant conversation by the spectators present. Various were the speculations as to the final result, when, all at once, a panel piece of ceiling fell, and then the girder, which is represented by the line of partition between the clerk's office and the court-room, gave way with an awful crash; and precipitated the spectators who were in the gallery of the court room to the main floor, and the additional weight in one single moment's time crushing the court-room floor through. The mass of human beings who were in attendance were sent, mingled with the bricks, mortar, splinters, beams, iron bars, desks, and chairs, to the floor of the House of Delegates, and in a second more, over fifty souls were launched into eternity! The whole atmosphere was thick with a dense cloud of dust from the plastering, and the human beings sent up a groan which will ring forever in the ears upon which it fell. In a moment, a few survivors clinging to the windows and fragments of hanging timber, and the bare and torn walls were all that remained to mark the place where only a moment before there was a scene of life, vigor, and hope.

SCENE ABOUT THE CAPITOL BUILDING.

The scene about the Capitol building just after the sad occurrence was one of terror. The first notice that those who were in the building had of the impending evil was the premonitory rumbling as the floor was settling. Then there came a fearful crash, accompanied by a cry of human agony and terror which smote the hearts of all who heard it. In a moment the frightful situation was realized. The few who had been so fortunate as to be able to get into the windows shouted aloud for help for those who had fallen, and called for ladders. In a short time the bells were tolling, and, the hook and ladder truck being brought upon the spot, the ladders were put up to the windows, and the work of humanity began. The blinding dust within prevented any one from seeing anything, and the rushing of persons within the building and the cries of the wounded were all that could be heard.

IN THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Here was a scene that fairly made one's heart bleed. As the dust cleared away a little a mass of timbers and rubbish of every description was descried, and the reflection of the numbers of human beings crushed beneath its weight, dead and dying, was sickening. Add to this the cries and groans of those who were there, many in the agony of death, and there is a picture to make the stoutest hearts quail. The entire hall was flooded with the ruins, except the space under the gallery. Desks, chairs, and tables, were crushed completely, showing the force of the falling wreck. The work of removing the debris was a difficult one but was undertaken by those present with a will, and it was not long before the unfortunate men were being rescued from their painful position.

BRINGING OUT THE DEAD AND WOUNDED.

This scene defies even an attempt at description. The doors and windows of the Hall were thrown open, and within were soon collected the busy workers, who, mid their own shouts and the agonizing groans of those they were seeking to rescue, were removing the timbers. As the wounded and dead were reached, they were brought out and placed in the Senate chamber or else under the trees in the Square, where they were attended by our city physicians and others who were on hand with such appliances as could be obtained. As the men were brought out they were so covered with dust that they could scarcely be recognized, and for a while the anxious inquiries of the by-standers, "Who is he?" could not be answered. One by one they were borne out—the dead and dying. Here was one mangled and silently enduring, another crying aloud with pain, while the still form of a third told too well that its spirit had fled to another world. In one moment the gray hairs of age could be descried upon the head of some dead one, while in the next the tall, manly form of one who had been cut off in the full bloom of life was being borne past. It seemed as if sickening horrors would never cease, and ages seemed to pass in the performance of this sad duty.

THE SCENE IN THE SQUARE.

The tolling of bells, the rushing and hooting of excited men, and the news of the fearful calamity, which spread like wild-fire over the city in an incredibly short space of time, brought an immense crowd of all classes, ages, and colors, to the Square.

Hundreds of wives, mothers and friends, were constantly filling the grounds, who, with wringing hands sought, in despair, to know if any of their loved ones had been of the number mangled. War, with its horrors, its agonies, its sad separations, its ghastly wounds, its horrible deaths, pictures to the mind no such scene as the one which was yesterday enacted in the Square.

To contemplate upon such a shocking affair—to see the faces of those who expected each moment to find a near and dear friend borne from the ruins to be cared for on the grounds by the citizens and physicians in attendance—fills the soul with horror and awful fear.

Hacks, ambulances, and vehicles of all descriptions, were promptly on the ground, ready to convey the wounded away from the scene of disaster to their homes, where they could be cared for, and their wounds dressed to better advantage than in the dense crowd with which they were surrounded. The dead, who had been brought out, were respectfully and decently laid aside and covered with blankets, and afterwards borne away to their bereaved families.

Policemen were stationed on the steps of the building to prevent the crowd from rushing in and thereby hindering those who were administering to the relief of the sufferers; and at a late hour the gates of the Square were guarded by Mayor Ellyson's police, who kept out the crowd of persons who seemed bent on viewing the scene of the disaster.

ABOUT THE CITY.

The excitement, of the moment over, the beautiful city of Richmond was wrapped in gloom. The popular heart was sad, the voice of woe and mourning resounded throughout the city, and the asperities of life were softened in the sympathy of a public calamity, leaving our people united in grief and in the desire to show their respect for the dead and feeling for the injured. All the business houses of the city were closed and badges of mourning displayed, and save for the number of persons on them our streets wore the appearance of the Sabbath.

TO PHYSICIANS.

The Board of Health request that all physicians and surgeons, in making out their certificates of death for the victims of this calamity, will please state that they came to their death in this manner. Their object is to get an accurate list of the killed.

THE CITY SURGEONS.

The different surgeons of the city in attendance on the wounded would confer a favor on their friends throughout the country as well as relieve the deep anxiety which pervades all classes of our citizens by leaving at our office by 6 o'clock this evening an account of their condition. We will furnish the other papers with a copy of their reports.

We give below as accurately as could be ascertained the

ATTENTIONS TO THE WOUNDED.

Under this head too much could not be said in praise of many who labored hard to relieve the sufferers. We cannot particularize, as there are too many to be mentioned separately, but we will only say that the members of the Fire Brigade, the police force, and many of our citizens, white and colored, labored untiringly in their efforts to alleviate suffering and to render all aid in removing the dead and wounded from the ground.

INCIDENTS.

When the accident first occurred Mr. W. H. Grant was just entering the court room. With great presence of mind he rushed to the bell-house and had the alarm rung in an incredibly short time.

Mr. Thomas Joynes fell together with Dr. J. Brock, and his mouth rested against the Doctor's cheek. He asked who it was near him. He told him his name, and he asked him in case he survived to carry many messages of affection to his family. With words of endearment and love for those he left behind he died.

Mr. Rush Burgess fell on top of a gentleman whose name he could not learn. He asked, "My friend, can you not move a little?" Mr. Burgess replied, "No, I cannot stir." "Well," said he, "I must die. Good-bye."

During the time in which Hon. George William Brent, of Alexandria, was covered in the ruins, Mr. Chandler, who was between the window and Mr. Brent, was endeavoring to get away when Mr. Brent caught him by the arm and begged him, for God's sake, to let him get some air, but in Mr. Chandler's position it was impossible for him to move until assistance was rendered. In a short time, however, he was taken out and his life saved.

We learn from Mr. Chandler, who was doing well last evening, that Mr. Samuel A. Eaton was sitting on the back of his chair when the floor fell through. Eaton was killed and Mr. Chandler not seriously injured—such escapes are most remarkable.

The Conservative caucus which had met in the hall of the House of Delegates adjourned not many minutes before the calamity. Fortunately there had been a dispute about the judgeship of Henry county and an adjournment was necessary. Had this not been the case more than half of the Legislature would have been crushed.

Dr. Thompson member of the House of Delegates from Hanover, was caught under two men who were instantly killed by a heavy falling beam. He himself was slightly injured.

Mr. P. H. Keenan was buried beneath the ruins for three quarters of an hour, and was found nearly suffocated under the dead bodies. He has almost entirely recovered.

Among the killed was a Mr. Burnham, of New York. Mr. R. C. Burkholder, one of the members of the House from Lynchburg, hearing that Mr. Burnham was a relative of one of his constituents, a wellknown builder of Lynchburg, at once sought out the body which had been temporarily deposited for identification in the City Hall, and had it placed in a splendid metallic case, and made arrangements to have it deposited in a private vault at Hollywood until called for by friends.

THE THEORY OF THE ACCIDENT.

From conversations with several who were in the court-room at the time of the fall we learn the following as the true theory of the accident: The large girder which was under the partition between the clerk's office and the court-room snapped in twain, and immediately afterwards the floor commenced to cave. The support of the crowded gallery having given away, the gallery parted from the wall and fell over into the centre of the court room, crushing through the floor and precipitating the mass of human beings and rubbish into the hall below. We examined the girder and found that it had broken off just in the centre. It was hewn timber, and just where it broke was a cut, as if the workmen in hewing had made a mistick and driven his adze into the wood about a quarter of an inch.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

The most terrible feature about this whole affair is the heart-rending manner of death in the majority of instances. Many of the dead, when brought out, were found to be without serious bodily injury, but had evidently died from suffocation. The mere contemplation of such a thing is sickening. Hard, indeed, was the fate of those who had escaped death from the falling timber in the end to die from the untold agonies of suffocation.

AN OLD RELIC GONE.

If we may be pardoned for any consideration of loss other than that of human life, we will mention the smash-up of an old and much honored relic of bye-gone days, the Speaker's chair of the House of Delegates, which was formerly used in the House of Burgesses, decorated with the royal arms of Great Britain. It was subsequently moved here from Williamsburg, and has been used in the House of Delegates ever since. It was buried and broken in the ruins of yesterday.

MEETING OF THE RICHMOND PRESS CLUB.

Pursuant to a call from the President, Mr. W S Gilman, a special meeting of the Richmond Press Club was held last night at the office of the Whig.

Mr T H Wynne moved that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the loss sustained by the club by the death of Dr J R Brock.

The following committee was appointed: Messrs. Wynne, Tinsley, Cowardin, Wiltz and Coghlan.

The committee, after a brief retirement, reported the following preamble and resolutions; which were unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Director of all things to remove from those who were professionally associated with him our esteemed friend Dr Joseph R Brock, of this city,

"Resolved, That the death of our late friend and associate is to us a personal affliction. We regard his loss as a public calamity, and while we deeply deplore his untimely end, we consider it as an admonition to us to be prepared at all time to meet that summons, which sooner or later must reach us all.

"Resolved, That we will ever cherish the memory of our deceased brother with affectionate regard, and that we will ever emulate his generous character and endeavor to imitate that courteous and kindly bearing which made him so well beloved by those who knew him.

"Resolved, That we tender our deepest sympathies to the family of the deceased, and assure them of our respect and regard for the deceased, and of regret for the loss which they have sustained.

"Resolved, That the meeting of this Club will attend his funeral in a body, appointing four members to act as pall bearers.

"Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the family of the deceased."

Mr. Wynne paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of our deceased brother, and related a touching incident occurring during his last moments, showing by the message of affection sent to his wife and children, whom he loved so tenderly and devotedly, that his heart was in the right place, and that care for himself had no part in his thoughts even when his life was ebbing out.

On motion the Club adjourned.

Pall-Bearers.—W H Wade, W T Gilman, Thomas H Wynne, W P Gratter, on the part of the press. The masonic fraternity have appointed the following: Col Albert Ordway, James A Scott, James E Tyler, Powhatan Wringer, Wm E Tanner, and Dr. Frank Cunningham.

MEETING OF THE PRESS.

After an adjournment of the Press Club a general meeting of members and ex members of the Virginia press was held at the Whig office.

Mr. James McDonald was called to the chair and Mr. Ernest Wiltz requested to act as secretary.

Mr. McDonald announced the death of Hugh Pleasants, Esq, the veteran editor, and paid an appropriate and eloquent tribute to his character. He also referred in feeling terms to the death of Mr. P. H. Aylett.

After remarks by Messrs. J. R. Cowardin and W. S. Gilman, the latter moved that a committee consisting of the chairman, Dr G. W. Bagby, and Mr. T. H. Wynne, be appointed to draft suitable resolutions. The motion was agreed to.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Hugh Pleasants, for more than a generation associated with the press of this state as editor and contributor, the profession has lost a member who adorned it by his genius and learning, and who, in the unselfish and sincere manner in which he sustained what he believed to be the true theory of government and the real interests of the people, illustrated the highest mission of journalism, and entitled himself to the public applause.

"Resolved, That in the death of Patrick Henry Aylett the city of Richmond has lost one of her most eminent and rising citizens—the state of Virginia has been bereaved of a son doubly dear, in that he was himself distinguished scarcely more for his descent from one of the very greatest of Virginians than for his own attainments, but that the profession of journalism in Virginia, though it had ceased to claim him as an active member, has been deprived of perhaps the most brilliant, versatile, and vigorous genius which time had spared to our little Republic of Letters.

"Resolved, That the journalists, former associates, friends, and admirers, of these eminent writers and citizens, we tender to their families and friends the assurance of our profound regret, our sincere and deep sympathy."

MEETING OF POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN.

A meeting of the policemen of Messrs. Ellyson and Cahoon and firemen of the city was held in the City Hall last night for the purpose of making preparations for the burial of the dead of their respective forces.

Mr H K Ellyson was called to the chair, Captain Cheney Parker elected vice-president, and Captain James M. Tyler appointed secretary.

On motion of Major Poe, the following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the burial of the dead: Major John Poe, Jr., Colonel Egbert, Captain James M. Tyler, Captain Cheney Parker, sergeant W. D. Whitlock, sergeant James Connelly, Privates Lorenzo Fuller and William Bailey. Firemen: Charles Cinsely, George R Minor, Fleming Wingfield, and Herman Paul.

The Chairman stated that in consequence of injuries received Mr. Cahoon was unable to attend the meeting.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

Several articles prepared for this issue unavoidably crowded out.

THEY'RE GOING TO PLAY TOODLES.—As will be seen by the announcement Miss Keene and her excellent Company, will repeat "Our American Cousin," to-night, and close with the immortal "Toodles." We are sure the House will be crowded, as the weather was unpropitious last night. Let this evening make up for the deficiencies of the last, and give Miss Keene and her Company a farewell "bumper."

THANKS.—The Local hereby tenders his thanks to Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, for a neatly bound copy of the "Methodist Pulpit South," containing finely finished steel engravings of many of the most prominent ministers of that denomination, and a sermon from each, making a book of some 450 pages.

FILLING UP.—We noticed a force at the city pumps, yesterday, engaged in filling the tanks on Fayetteville street, that have been recently repaired.

A CALL.—Rufus Stanley, leader of the Raleigh Brass Band requests us to say that they have ordered two additional pieces to the band, and which are in the Express Office awaiting the necessary means to get them out. They have appointed a committee to wait on our citizens and they hope to receive such a liberal response in the way of contributions as to enable them to get the instruments out of the Office.

> ' It was Sam Jones, the fisherman
> Was bound to Sandyhook,
> But first upon an Almanac,
> A solemn vow he took;
> And grant propitious queen of heaven,
> Was then the prayer of Sam's,
> That I may have good luck to-night
> And catch a load of clams."

Some of Jones's descendants have recently been out clamming and sent up a supply to Pepper and O'Connor, who converted the cetaceous nopeds into a most delicious pot of soup, of which we were the recipient of a bowlful, just at that particular time, you know, when clam soup "and sich" are very acceptable.

There will be some more of this soup at Pepper and O'Connor's to-day at 11 o'clock. It is mighty good. Families supplied.

Now, in return, we will do Pepper and O'Connor the kindness of giving them a suggestion, which is this, The run of Rock is now in season in Roanoke, and if they will cater a few of them up occasionally, and convert them into a regular "Roanoke muddle," we think they would take.

Dr. Lindoman will remain a few days longer; if you have Corns, Bunions or bad nails don't fail to give him a call, he cures without pain or drawing blood. Room 42, Yarborough House. Ladies attended at their residences without extra charge.—Charges moderate. A few days longer only.

TROUBLE IN RAM CAT—WOMAN SHOT.

On Thursday night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, Mr. Jarvis Wood, living on the Holly Springs road, some five miles from Raleigh, was hailed by some one at his gate, in a tone and manner which excited his suspicion. Taking his gun in his hand, he went out to the gate, where he saw a man, as he thought, who commenced to advance on him in a threatening manner, and he commenced backing and warning the intruder to keep back. The person, however, continued to advance on him, until Mr. Wood had backed against the fence; he then fired, the load of the gun entering the breast, inflicting a wound from which death soon ensued.

A woman and boy who, it seems, were close by, then came forward and took the wounded person some distance from the gate. Mr. Wood ran to a neighbor's for help, and returned with a Mr. Bell, living close by. In looking round they found the person who had been shot, who had then been left by the others. On examination they found the wounded person to be a woman, known in the neighborhood as "big-footed Moll," dressed in men's clothes. She is a woman of the most abandoned character, who has been living in the neighborhood for some time. We have seen no one who can tell her real name.

We are informed that on Thursday this woman went to borrow money of Wood and was refused. She then swore she would go at night and run him from home. Accordingly she dressed in men's clothing, and accompanied by the woman and boy by the name of Alexander, went to Wood's gate and hailed, as already stated; the two remaining at a distance.—After the gun was fired, Moll attempted to leave and was met and assisted by the two others, but they, becoming alarmed, lest they too might be shot, left her and went off.

When Mr. Bell returned with Wood, the woman was still living, but died soon after.

Information of the affair was brought to the city, when Mr. A. H. Temple was appointed special coronor and went out to take charge of the case.

The Jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts; Wood was brought before W. H. Harrison, Esq., in this City, and recognized to appear to-day at 2 o'clock for examination. He is an Englishman, recently settled in the county, and has a wife and child who are now among relatives in Connecticut.

GOOD NEWS.—A telegram was received here yesterday from Dr. Wm. Sloan, President of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, addressed to Mayor Martin, saying, "I have made arrangements to build the road to Charlotte."

We hope for the sake of our rapidly growing city that the above is wholly and fully true and no idle boast.—Wilmington Journal 28th.

CHARLES H. SNEAD.

In the Standard of Thursday appears a card, or a letter, from this horse-thief J. P. and friend of Gov. Holden.

Snead prefers grave charges against the editor of this paper, such as "hood winking" his friends, &c. A year ago, the Standard charged us with burglary! We did not reply to that charge at the time, nor do we think it very important that we should notice Snead's charge now. We had no intention of wounding his feelings in alluding to his intimacy with Greasy Sam; we think, horse-thief though he may be, that he was, at least, not honored by the association. We can honestly say we had no purpose of injuring or mortifying him, and no hope of reforming him.

If, however, Snead is not a horse thief, he has been very greatly wronged and harshly treated by Judge Watts and his own nephew, who, convinced of his guilt, bound him over to Court to answer for horse stealing.

Snead defends his friend and fellow Leagueman, Judge Watts, better known as "Greasy Sam," and charges that we invented falsehoods on him in regard to his drinking in Smithfield.

We got the facts from a gentleman who saw him walking with the horse thief, after reducing his bail from $5,000 to $1,000, without any additional light or evidence on the subject. We shall inquire further into the matter and if in error, will make full and ample apology to Snead for what we said in regard to his drinking with Judge Watts; for, as we have already said, we have no inclination to add further damage to his character, by representing him as being intimate with that gentleman, if such is not the case.

We shall not condescend to notice what Snead says of our "debts" and "frauds" in our early days, as coming from him, but as coming from the Governor and his son Joe. Snead, poor fellow, never wrote a word of that letter; nor do we think Joe wrote it; for when we saw Joe, about that time, he was in a buggy which was reeling and zigzagging along, just like Judge Settle's buggy did the day the Judge's churn was lost. But any man in Johnston county might safely swear that Snead didn't write it.

We believe the Governor wrote, or suggested it. We know that when he run the Standard before, ostensibly under the charge of his son Joe, (who then, as now, had not fully come to the years of discretion,) he did much of the writing for it, especially when some one was to be assailed or traduced. When we attribute such articles, now, to the pen of the Governor wrongfully, he can credit it to the articles he did write and for which we failed to charge him.

Owing to weak eyes and indifferent health in youth, we had not left College when we were twenty one. Our travel had been circumscribed and our acquaintance limited to the counties of Guilford and Orange. Our bills were few and promptly paid by the old gentleman who purchased the SENTINEL office for us. We were not allowed to make bills, as was the Governor's son, and then dispute, quarrel and fight about them.

Whenever the Governor and his son Joe desire, through there horse-thief historian, to write the history of our "early days," they will find material in Orange and Guilford. In those days, though no saint, we were above that which was little, low, or mean. We are proud, to-day, of the character we have always maintained from our youth up, among the honest and honorable men of our native hills.

We congratulate the Governor and his son on their success in procuring this new ally, Charles Snead, the horse-thief, to aid them in assailing us through their organ the Standard.

THE GOVERNOR AND DEWEESE.

It it be true that none but men of merit can discover merit in others, then our Governor is wholly without merit. The Governor has been most unfortunate in selecting men for office. In his appointments of magistrates, if he did not appoint a rogue or man of bad character in each and every county, we should like to know which county escaped.

We have personal knowledge of his appointment of men who had been convicted of larceny and moved from the county where convicted upon a bargain with the Solicitor that he would not pray the sentence of the Court upon them, and this in more counties than one.

The Governor was unfortunate in the selection of his friends and officials in some cases, in others he was guilty of appointing men he knew to be incompetent and dishonest. The thieving rascal Deweese was his personal and intimate friend, after the Governor had heard about, that three thousand dollar bond payable to the fictitious James Smith.

Littlefield gave this bond payable to James Smith. When sued upon it by Mr. Shaffer, Littlefield swore it was given for an illegal consideration and to a fictitious person. Before the committee, Littlefield swore he had never given such a bond, and that no writ for such a bond had ever been served upon him. Our Sheriff from Boston, Tim Lee, contradicts him on oath just as flatly as he did Judge Watts about the bonds, and in this case, as in that of Watts and the bonds, we believe Tim.

A man from Boston is as capable of swearing the truth as "Southern chivalry" when it is put up in the shape of Judge Watts.—But Deweese is the subject of our song and the Governor only comes in incidentally because he is on this scoundrel's bond as Commissioner in Bankruptcy. David Clark filed a petition in bankruptcy; after paying one hundred and thirty dollars by way of cost, there remained ten dollars to be paid. In the bill of cost as made out, twelve dollars was charged for the printer when it should have been six dollars, and eight where it should have been four. The Governor being the printer made these California extortionate charges. Judge Brooks ordered in Court that the Governor then printer should have six where he charged twelve, and four where he charged eight, yet the bill was made out for twelve and eight. Mr. Clark refused to pay and recently when he applied again for his discharge, he was informed he must pay thirty-four dollars, instead of ten, because Deweese had charged himself on the books with $25 only, instead of $50—Mr. Shaffer, the commissioner, tells Mr. Clark he must sue Deweese and his securities to recover the twenty-six dollars, which Deweese had not accounted for.

Mr. Clark is entitled to his discharge, he has paid every cent of the cost. We hope the Governor, as the friend and bondsman of Deweese will call on Mr. Shaffer and settle the matter without putting Mr. Clark to the trouble and expense of suing the Governor of the State.

CITIZENS' MEETING.

A meeting of the citizens of Raleigh was held at Tucker Hall, on yesterday afternoon, to give expression of public sympathy for the sufferers from the recent calamity in Richmond, Va.

On motion of G. W. Mordecai, Esq., Hon. Wm. H. Battle was called to the Chair and Douglas Bell requested to act as Secretary.

On motion of James Font Taylor Esq., the Chair was requested to appoint a committee of five to draw up resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

Before announcing the Committee, Mr. Battle said:

"Before announcing the committee to draw resolutions expressing the sentiments of the citizens of Raleigh in relation to the recent calamity to our sister city of Richmon, I will make a few remarks.

It would seem that that beautiful city is devoted to calamity. In 1811 her theatre, while crowded with her ablest, brightest and best citizens, was destroyed by fire, and the Chief Executive, with many of her most distinguished Statesmen and lovely women perished in the flames.

Although of a different nature, the recent occurence was equally sad. The contrast presented in the afternoon with that of the morning, was indeed a terrible one. Many in the morning full of the vigor of life and hope, in the short interval of a few hours, were the subjects of sorrow, suffering and death, and the day that began with the sounds of busy life and kindly greeting, closed with the voice of wailing and lamentation.

Here, as throughout the whole country, the deepest sympathy is aroused by the sad calamity and many manifestations of grief and sorrow has been given."

The Chair then announced as the Committee Rev. W. E. Pell, Jas. Font Taylor, Geo. W. Mordecai, Esqs., Mayor W. H. Harrison and P. F. Pescud, Esq.

Mr. Pescud not being present, at the suggestion of one of the Committee, the name of K. P. Battle, Esq., was substituted.

The Committee having retired, Major Seaton Gales was called on, and addressed the meeting as follows:

Mr. Gales said that he hardly thought it necessary, after the appropriate remarks which had fallen from the Chairman, to address the meeting. He was impressed with the feeling that this was one of those occasions, when silence was the most expressive eloquence. Every heart felt a response to the sentiments of the distinguished Chairman,—every countenance expressed it,—all the truest and tenderest sympathies of our nature proclaimed it.

Sir, (said he,) our sister Capital of our sister State of Virginia is sitting in the ashes of an awful desolation,—in the inconsolable anguish of an appalling bereavement. Everywhere, throughout the length and breadth of the land, the echo of her wailing was heard and the hearts of men were touched and melted at the sound.—Everywhere, from far off Illinois to the very Gulf, generous expressions of sympathy and tokens of substantial condolence were pouring in upon the afflicted city and her heart-stricken population. It is right that we, too, should join the sorrowing throng—should speak words of commiseration,—should yield to that touch of nature which makes all the world akin.

In view of this frightful calamity, the voice of party passion is hushed and the antipathies of men forgotten. This is as it should be. Far above every other consideration rises the thought,—higher than anything which can affect human ambition or attainment, of the instability of life, the solemn conviction that

> "The spider's most attenuated thread
> Is cord—is cable,—to man's brittle hold
> On earthly bliss."

The committee then reported the following resolutions:

Deeply impressed with the fearfully awful calamity with which our sister city, Richmond, Va., was visited on Wednesday last, by the sudden falling of the Court of Appeals in the Capitol of Virginia, crushing through the floor of the Court room and precipitating hundreds of our fellow-citizens into the Hall of the House of Delegates below, killing some 60 persons and maiming, wounding and bruising about 130 others, the citizens of Raleigh have assembled to give expression to their feelings at the earliest moment after learning the particulars of the sad and distressing catastrophe, in the following terms:

Resolved, That the melancholy tidings of the late calamity in the city of Richmond, fill our hearts with unaffected sorrow, and we do hereby tender to our afflicted sister city, our most sincere condolence and warmest sympathy.

Resolved, That as a mark of our sincere humiliation under this afflictive dispensation, our people will join with those of Richmond in the observance of the day, when all business be suspended in the city, on Wednesday next, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M., that the bells of the city be tolled between the hours of 10 A. M. and 11 and between 3 and 4 P. M., that the Churches of the city be opened on that day at 11 o'clock, A. M. for religious worship, and that the pastors of the several Churches, be and are hereby requested to adapt their services at that hour, to the melancholy event.

Resolved, That as a further mark of our sympathy, a committee of five be appointed by the President of this meeting to solicit such donations from our citizens as they may be able to contribute, to aid in the relief of the suffering needy, upon whom this calamity has fallen so heavily.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the President and Secretary of this meeting to Gov. Walker of Virginia and to the Chief Executive officer of the city of Richmond.

Hon. Josiah Turner then arose and said:

He arose simply to second the resolutions. It needed from him no cold argument, first to convince, and then to enforce their adoption. God's great law of humanity, long before the committee put the resolutions on paper, had written them on every heart in this assembly. It was a law of humanity, that all should feel for those who were the victims of such an awful and unheard of calamity. He knew the good people of the city of Oaks would answer fully, feelingly and promptly to the cry of woe and want, misery and distress, which had gone up from a sister city. He would not say more, he could not say less.

The Resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were then appointed by the Chair to receive donations for the benefit of the Richmond sufferers: Messrs. W. G. Upchurch, A. D. Jenkins, A. M. McPheters, R. S. Tucker, and W. C. Stronach.

On motion, the papers of the city were requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, the meeting then adjourned.

W. H. BATTLE, Ch'm.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—This morning's Republican says that a telegram was received yesterday at the Navy Department from Havana, stating that the volunteers had rebelled and assumed charge of affairs.

The Aspinwall steamer had been detained by the volunteers, and the impression prevailed that they would take charge of the Island.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

WILMINGTON NORTH CAROLINA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

JOHN DAWSON,
ALEXANDER JOHNSON, JR.,
CAPT. JOHN E. SPEARMAN,
CAP. I. B. GRAINGER,
B. F. GRADY,
DR. C. T. MURPHY,
COL. L. A. POWELL,
H. B. EILERS,
GEORGE W. WILLIAMS.

OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY:

JOHN DAWSON .... PRESIDENT.
B. F. GRADY .... VICE PRESIDENT AND TREASURER.
ALEXANDER JOHNSON, JR .... SECRETARY.
DR. E. A. ANDERSON .... MEDICAL DIRECTOR.
WM. A. WRIGHT AND C. M. STEDMAN .... ATTORNEYS.
HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT .... CONSULTING ACTUARY.
REV. B. F. MARABLE .... GENERAL SUPERVISING AGENT.

THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE COMPANY IS LOCATED IN WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, No. 5, NORTH FRONT STREET.

THIS COMPANY WAS CHARTERED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA IN February 1869. The Charter is perpetual, and is very liberal in its provisions.

CAPITAL STOCK $300,000,

WITH PRIVILEGE TO INCREASE IT TO

$1,000,000.

The Board of Directors beg leave to say to the people of North Carolina, that this is emphatically a "HOME INSTITUTION." The Stockholders are all North Carolinians; the members of the Board of Directors are all North Carolinians; the officers of the Company are ALL NORTH CAROLINIANS; and the Agents of the Company are all North Carolinians.

Most of the States of the Union, in which Insurance Companies are located, require a heavy deposit from Companies located in other States before being allowed to do business in them; and the Board of Directors of this Company, believing that it was nothing more than "EVEN HANDED JUSTICE" that the Legislature of North Carolina should pass a law requiring such Companies located outside of this State to make a deposit with the Treasurer of the State before being allowed to do business in it, petitioned the Legislature at its late session for the passage of such a law, but that Honorable Body turned a deaf ear to our humble petition and refused to do so. NOW, we humbly submit that if it is just and right that Insurance Companies LOCATED IN NORTH CAROLINA should be required to make a deposit with the Treasurer of any of her sister States before being allowed to do business in them; then it is equally just and right that Insurance Companies located in such sister States should be required to make a deposit with the Treasurer of North Carolina before being allowed to do business in this State. The Legislatures of other States afford and why in the name of common justice should not the Legislature of North Carolina do the same thing? Has the time not yet come when the "Rip Van Winkle of the South" should wake up? Are the people of the "Good Old North State" to remain forever behind their neighbors in the MARCH OF IMPROVEMENT? Why is it that we cannot establish Institutions of our own and protect and support them, and thereby keep our money at home to benefit our own people, in the same manner that the citizens of other States do? Look at the hundreds of thousands of dollars which go out of the pockets of the people of North Carolina annually, to enrich the Insurance Companies and benefit the people of other States; and what is worse than all, it goes to benefit the people of States which refuse to allow NORTH CAROLINA INSURANCE COMPANIES to do business in them without making a heavy deposit. We have not a single word to say against the Insurance Companies of other States; but as the Legislature of other States afford protection to their Insurance Companies, when such companies in this State are refused protection by our Legislature, we humbly submit that it is the duty of the people of the State to patronize and SUSTAIN OUR OWN COMPANIES; for by doing this they are but simply doing justice to themselves.

The Board of Directors and Officers of this Company assure the people of North Carolina that the Company commences the work of Life Insurance upon a SOUND AND RELIABLE BASIS; and they hereby pledge their honor that the management of the affairs of the company shall be such as will give perfect security and safety to all who may patronize it.

Our Table rates were calculated by the Hon. Elizur Wright, the world-renowned actuary, and may be relied upon as being correct.

This being a "HOME INSTITUTION," we have no long list of Directors and Stockholders, composed of distinguished gentlemen of other States to spread before you; but we have a respectable list of Stockholders, all of whom are North Carolinians, and a large portion of them will be recognized as being some of the BEST CITIZENS OF THE STATE. Nor have we a long array of names of eminent gentlemen abroad to refer to; but we respectfully refer to the good citizens generally of this community.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES B. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience; men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.
